OKLAHOMA'S COWBOYS COMPETE TO HELP KIDS

Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association Range Round-Up Benefits Children's Hospital Foundation

OKLAHOMA CITY (August 11, 2010) – Experience “The Real Deal,” as the 26th annual Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association Range Round Up is nicknamed to help raise money for Children's Hospital Foundation, an affiliate of Children's Miracle Network.

The event begins 7:30 p.m. nightly on August 27 and 28 at the State Fair Arena in Oklahoma City.

General Admission tickets at the door are $12.00 while Advance General Admission is $9.00. Reserve Box Seats are $18.00, and Reserve General Admission is $15.00. All children 12 years old and under are half price in the General Admission and Reserve Bleacher sections.

Doors open at 6 p.m., and free rides on the Express Clydesdale wagon around the arena will be available for all children during the event.

Several miracle children will cheer on the cowboys and cowgirls during the event. Miracle children have fought and survived pediatric diseases. They are the inspiration behind Children's Miracle Network's fundraising efforts, and they hope to inspire the competing ranches.

“We are celebrating 26 years of the Oklahoma Cattlemen's Association Range Round-Up, and for the past 13 years, our selected charity has been the Children's Miracle Network,” said Steve McKinley, OCA Director of Operations. “We are proud to be a small part in supporting children's medical research that is helping kids all over the world.”

Twelve ranch teams representing 18 of Oklahoma's oldest and most historic ranches will compete in six exciting cowboy events each night. Points scored in each event will accumulate
